Dear Parent,

Assalamualaikum.

Kindly be informed that as a part the English Literary Club Activity a Debate is going to be held for the students of Grade 8th to give them a platform to express their opinions, share insights and foster communication skills and critical thinking .It will also give an opportunity to reflect their own learning experiences.

To train the students the Debate will be conducted in two sessions. The first session will be a Mock Debate and will be organized on 16th October 2024. Selected students will participate in the Final Debate and the date for the finals will be intimated later.

Debate will be conducted between two teams. One team will support the given topic while the other team will oppose the topic. The event will comprise of two rounds, first round is a General round, and 3 minutes time will be allotted to each participant of a team. Second round will be a Rebuttal round, and 1 minute time will be allotted to each participant.

Topic for the mock debate: Should we ban homework: Does homework promote learning?

Regards
